2. The Study Group may be requested to examine the terms of reference of the Commission and identify the related subjects for study. Some subjects that could be taken up by the Study Group straight away are furnished in Annexure II. Additional subjects considered relevant by the Study Group may also be gone into and covered in their final report.

3. Some senior officers with administrative experience in certain Government Departments like law, labour, jails, correctional services, local administration and education, may be associated with the Group for studying certain selected items like Sl. Nos. 4, 14, 15, 21, 24, 25 and 35 in the list at Annexure II.

4. While making studies the Group may take due note of the actual ground position in the districts, particularly at the village, taluk and police station level.

5. In selected districts it may be of advantage to form small Study Groups comprising taluk/police station level officers also to secure response from their level to some of the pressing issues. The views of these Groups may then be taken into account before the State level Study Group evolves its recommendations. Some examples of subjects that could be considered by taluk police station level Study Groups are Sl. Nos. 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 20, 21, 28, 30 and 33 in the list at Annexure II.

6. The names of the Chairman, Convener and other members of the Study Group may please be intimated very early to the undersigned.

7. A copy of this letter is being marked to your Inspector-General of Police so that he may identify and earmark suitable senior police officers to assist the Study Group as the work progresses.

8. It is clarified that the views and suggestions of the Study Group will be that of the Group only and will not be taken to reflect the State Government's views on any issue or commit the State Government to any related matter.

9. I shall be grateful if arrangements are made for the study Group in your State to start its work immediately and plan its deliberations in such a manner as to send us its report with recommendations before the 31st March, 1978.

10. A brief conference of the Conveners of Study Groups in different regions is proposed to be held in February, 1978 at convenient regional centers to assess the progress of studies and clarify matters for their expeditious completion.

Yours faithfully,

Sd./-
